Hey so on trilateral meeting

Sam I don't know what you think but I really think we need Jones at the table or and perhaps your boss push again

Mike Jones

By Jones I assume you mean ON, and can have my boss reach out again but the last call got pretty frosty at the end when he was saying we need the province to get back to us with their plan

"I don't take edicts from you, you're not my fucking boss"

Yes! Obviously not you

She said that! ?!

Mike Jones
